On July 02, 2003, the following order was passed:-

"It is informed that counsel for the petitioner has since died, but no power of attorney has been filed by any other counsel on behalf of the petitioner. It shall be in the interest of justice if the petitioner is served without process fee indicating the afore-stated fact and with the stipulation that he may put in appearance personally or through counsel on the date fixed, failing which the petition shall be dismissed for non-prosecution. I order accordingly."

In compliance of the order, as reported by the Office, notice issued to the petitioner has been received back unserved for want of correct address.

Counsel for the petitioner has already expired. Even after that, the petitioner has not taken any interest to know the status of the case.

Under these circumstances, no further action is required.

Dismissed for non-prosecution.
